

PRIVACY POLICY

In this Privacy Policy, the expressions “KINNECT”, “we”, “us” and “our” are a reference to KINNECT Pty Ltd (ACN 114 691 860) and its Related Bodies Corporate (as defined by the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and including KINNECT Holdings Pty Ltd and KINNECT IT Pty Ltd).

This Privacy Policy applies to personal information collected by us. We are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), which govern the way private sector organisations collect, use, keep secure and disclose personal information.

The purpose of this Privacy Policy is to generally inform people of:

- how and when we collect personal information;
- how we use and disclose personal information;
- how we keep personal information secure, accurate and up-to-date;
- how an individual can access and correct their personal information; and
- how we will facilitate or resolve a privacy complaint.

If you have any concerns or complaints about the manner in which your personal information has been collected, used or disclosed by us, we have put in place an effective mechanism and procedure for you to contact us so that we can attempt to resolve the issue or complaint. Please see Section 1.28 for further details.

If you have any concerns or questions, please contact us and our privacy officer at info@KINNECT.com.au or write to us at PO Box 8264 Woolloongabba Qld 4102 and our privacy officer will then attempt to resolve the issue.

We recommend that you keep this information for future reference.

What is personal information?

The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) defines “personal information” to mean any information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- whether the information or opinion is true or not; and
- whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.

The kinds of personal information collected, used and disclosed by KINNECT

We will only use or disclose your personal information for the primary purposes for which it was collected or as consented to by you, unless an exception under the Privacy Act applies to that disclosure or use.

At or around the time we collect personal information from you, we will endeavour to provide you with a notice which details how we will use and disclose that specific information.

We set out some common collection, use and disclosure instances in the table below.

How KINNECT collects and holds personal information

1.1 Collection generally

As much as possible or unless provided otherwise in this Privacy Policy or a notification, we will collect your personal information directly from you. Depending on the circumstances and the nature of the services we are providing in respect of you, we may collect your personal information from:

- (a) a referring medical provider, and independent medical services provider (such as an IME), or other health or medical third party in order to provide our services effectively; and
- (b) an insurer of you or your employer (such as Workcover).

When you engage in certain activities, such as filling out a survey or sending us feedback, we may ask you to provide certain information. It is completely optional for you to engage in these activities.

Depending upon the reason for requiring the information, some of the information we ask you to provide may be identified as mandatory or voluntary. If you do not provide the mandatory information or any other information we require in order for us to provide our products or services to you, we may be unable to provide our products or services to you in an effective manner, or at all.

1.2 Other collection types

We may also collect personal information about you from other sources. Some examples of these alternative collection events are:

- (a) when we have been engaged by your current or prospective employer to conduct health, medical, or drug or alcohol screening or training, some details about you may be provided by the employer;
- (b) where your background health information is collected from another individual to assist you during a medical emergency; or
- (c) when we collect personal information about you from publicly available sources including but not limited to, court judgments, directorship and bankruptcy searches, Australia Post, the White Pages directory, online search engines and social media platforms (such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram etc).

Where medical service providers and employers use our KINNECT IT platform as part of their business, they may collect your personal information and input it into the KINNECT IT platform. We generally host the KINNECT IT platform on behalf of these parties on Amazon Web Services, and may have access to your personal information for administrative purposes in connection with this platform.

1.3 Notification of collection

If we collect details about you from someone else, we will, whenever reasonably possible, make you aware that we have done this and why, unless special circumstances apply, including as described in the sub-clauses below. Generally speaking, we will not tell you when we collect personal information about you in the following circumstances:

- (a) where information is collected from any personal referee you have listed on any application form (including any employment application) with KINNECT;
- (b) where we are engaged by a third party to perform our services, such as your employer or an insurer (such as Workcover);
- (c) where information is collected from publicly available sources including but not limited to court judgments, directorship and bankruptcy searches, social media platforms (such as Facebook, Twitter, Google, Instagram etc); or
- (d) as otherwise required or authorised by law.

1.4 Unsolicited personal information

In the event we collect personal information from you, or a third party, in circumstances where we have not requested or solicited that information (known as unsolicited information), and it is determined by KINNECT that the personal information is not required, we will destroy the information or ensure that the information is de-identified.

In the event that the unsolicited personal information collected is in relation to potential future employment with KINNECT, such as your CV, resume or candidacy related information, and it is determined by KINNECT (in its absolute discretion) that it may consider you for potential future employment, KINNECT may keep the personal information on its human resource records.

1.5 How we hold your personal information

Once we collect your personal information, we will either hold it securely and store it on infrastructure owned or controlled by us or with a third party service provider who have taken reasonable steps to ensure they comply with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). We provide some more general information on our security measures in Section 1.25-1.26 (Data security and quality).

1.6 Cookies and IP addresses

If you use our website, we may utilise "cookies" which enable us to monitor traffic patterns, trends and to serve you more efficiently if you revisit our website. In most cases, a cookie does not identify you personally but may identify your internet service provider or computer.

We may gather your IP address as part of our business activities and to assist with any operational difficulties or support issues with our services. This information does not identify you personally.

However, in some cases, cookies may enable us to aggregate certain information with other personal information we collect and hold about you. KINNECT extends the same privacy protection to your personal information, whether gathered via cookies or from other sources, as detailed in this Privacy Policy.

You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie and this will provide you with an opportunity to either accept or reject it in each instance. However, if you disable cookies, you may not be able to access certain areas of our websites or take advantage of the improved web site experience that cookies offer.

Uses and discloses of personal information

1.7 Use and disclose details

We provide a detailed list in the table above of some common uses and disclosures we make regarding the personal information we collect.

1.8 Other uses and disclosures

We may also use or disclose your personal information and in doing so we are not required to seek your additional consent:

- (a) when it is disclosed or used for a purpose related to the primary purposes of collection detailed above and you would reasonably expect your personal information to be used or disclosed for such a purpose;
- (b) if we reasonably believe that the use or disclosure is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious or imminent threat to an individual's life, health or safety or to lessen or prevent a threat to public health or safety;
- (c) if we have reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, or is being, engaged in; or
- (d) if it is required or authorised by law.

Please be aware that, where you do not have capacity to make decisions about your medical care, we do not need your consent to disclose your personal information relating to your health to the person who is responsible for your care, usually your legal guardian or doctor.

1.9 Use and disclosure procedures

In the event we propose to use or disclose such personal information other than for reasons set out in the above table or as otherwise outlined in this Privacy Policy, we will first notify you or seek your consent prior to such disclosure or use.

Your personal information is disclosed to these organisations or parties only in relation to the products or services we provide to you or for a purpose permitted by this Privacy Policy.

We take such steps as are reasonable to ensure that these organisations or parties are aware of the provisions of this Privacy Policy in relation to your personal information.

1.10 Communications opt-out

If you have received communications from us and you no longer wish to receive those sorts of communications, you should contact us via the details set out at the top of this document and we will ensure the relevant communication ceases. Any other use or disclosure we make of your personal information will only be as required or authorised by law or as permitted by this Privacy Policy or otherwise with your consent.

Sensitive information

1.11 Sensitive information generally

Sensitive information is a subset of personal information. It means information or opinion about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, membership of a political organisation, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, membership of a professional or trade association, membership of a trade union, sexual orientation or practices, criminal record, health information about an individual, genetic information, biometric information that is to be used for the purpose of automated biometric verification or biometric identification or biometric templates.

1.12 Collection and use of sensitive information

Given the work we do, it is likely we will collect sensitive information from you in order to carry out the services provided to you. However, we generally do not collect sensitive information from you without your consent unless the collection is related to health information required to provide you with a health service, or an emergency makes obtaining your consent impractical.

The type of sensitive information we may collect about you is dependent on the services provided to you by KINNECT will be limited to the purpose(s) for which it is collected. We set out some types of sensitive information we may collect about you in the table at above.

We do not use sensitive information to send you Direct Marketing Communications (as set out in 1.14-1.16) without your express consent.

1.13 Consent

We may collect other types of sensitive information where you have consented and agree to the collection of such information. Generally speaking, we will obtain this type of consent from you at (or around) the point in time in which we collect the information.

Direct Marketing

1.14 Express informed consent

You give your express and informed consent to us using your personal information set out in:

- (a) the "General enquiries" section of the table in this document above; and to provide you with information and to tell you about our products, services or events or any other direct marketing activity (including third party products, services, and events) which we consider may be of interest to you, whether by post, email, SMS, messaging applications and telephone (Direct Marketing Communications).
- (b) the "Marketing Services" section of the table in this document above;

1.15 Inferred consent and reasonable expectations of direct marketing

Without limitation to paragraph 1.10, if you have provided inferred or implied consent (e.g. not opting out where an opt-out opportunity has been provided to you) or if it is within your reasonable expectation that we send you Direct Marketing Communications given the transaction or communication you have had with us, then we may also use your personal information for the purpose of sending you Direct Marketing Communications which we consider may be of interest to you.

1.16 Opt-out

If at any time you do not wish to receive any further Direct Marketing Communications from us or others under this Sections 1.14-1.16, you may ask us not to send you any further information about products and services and not to disclose your information to other organisations for that purpose. You may do this at any time by using the “unsubscribe” facility included in the Direct Marketing Communication or by contacting us via the details set out at the top of this document.

Credit Information and our Credit Reporting Policy

1.17 Credit information generally

The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) contains provisions regarding the use and disclosure of credit information, which applies in relation to the provision of both consumer credit and commercial credit.

1.18 Credit information and KINNECT

As we provide terms of payment of accounts which are greater than 7 days, we are considered a credit provider under the Privacy Act in relation to any credit we may provide you (in relation to the payment of your account with us).

We use credit related information for the purposes set out in the “Credit information” section of the table above and our Credit Reporting Policy which includes but is not limited to using the information for our own internal assessment of your credit worthiness.

1.19 Storage and access

We will store any credit information you provide us, or which we obtain about you, with any other personal information we may hold about you.

You may request to access or correct your credit information in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.18 and the provisions of our Credit Reporting Policy.

1.20 Complaints

Please see Section 1.27 - 1.30 and the provisions of our Credit Reporting Policy if you wish to make a complaint in relation to our handling of your credit information.

1.21 Our Credit Reporting Policy

Please see our Credit Reporting Policy for further information as to the manner in which we collect, use, store and disclosure credit information.

Anonymity and pseudo-anonymity

Given the sort of services we provide, it is generally not practical for KINNECT to correspond with you, or provide our services to you, in an anonymous manner or when you use a pseudonym. Your personal information may be required in order to provide you with our services or to resolve any issue you may have.

Cross Border Disclosure

1.22 Cross border disclosures

Any personal information collected and held by KINNECT may be disclosed to, and held at, a destination outside Australia, including but not limited to the Philippines where we utilise third party service providers to assist KINNECT with providing our services to you. Personal information may also be processed by staff or by other third parties operating outside Australia who work for us or for one of our suppliers, agents, partners or related companies.

As we use service providers and platforms which can be accessed from various countries via an Internet connection, it is not always practicable to know where your information may be held. If your information is stored in this way, disclosures may occur in countries other than those listed above.

In addition, we may utilise overseas IT services (including software, platforms and infrastructure), such as data storage facilities or other IT infrastructure. In such cases, we may own or control such overseas infrastructure, or we may have entered into contractual arrangements with third party service providers to assist KINNECT with providing our products and services to you.

1.23 Provision of informed consent

By submitting your personal information to KINNECT, you expressly agree and consent to the disclosure, transfer, storing or processing of your personal information outside of Australia. In providing this consent, you understand and acknowledge that countries outside Australia do not always have the same privacy protection obligations as Australia in relation to personal information. However, we will take steps to ensure that your information is used by third parties securely and in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy.

The Privacy Act 1988 requires us to take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances to ensure that any recipients of your personal information outside of Australia do not breach the privacy principles contained within the Privacy Act 1988. By providing your consent, under the Privacy Act 1988, we are not required to take such steps as may be reasonable in the circumstances. However, despite this, we acknowledge the importance of protecting personal information and have taken reasonable steps to ensure that your information is used by third parties securely and in accordance with the terms of this Privacy Policy.

1.24 If you do not consent

If you do not agree to the disclosure of your personal information outside Australia by KINNECT, you should (after being informed of the cross-border disclosure) tell KINNECT that you do not consent. To do this, either elect not to submit the personal information to KINNECT after being reasonably informed in a collection notification or please contact us via the details set out at the top of this document.

Data security and quality

1.25 KINNECT's security generally

We have taken steps to help secure and protect your personal information from unauthorised access, use, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. You will appreciate, however, that we cannot guarantee the security of all transmissions or personal information, especially where human error is involved or malicious activity by a third party.

Notwithstanding the above, we will take reasonable steps to:

- (a) make sure that the personal information we collect, use or disclose is accurate, complete and up to date;

- (b) protect your personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure both physically and through computer security methods; and
- (c) destroy or permanently de-identify personal information if it is no longer needed for its purpose of collection.

1.26 Accuracy

The accuracy of personal information depends largely on the information you provide to us, so we recommend that you:

- (a) let us know if there are any errors in your personal information; and
- (b) keep us up to date with changes to your personal information (such as your name or address).

We provide information about how you can access and correct your information in Section 1.31 - 1.33.

Access to and correction of your personal information

You are entitled to have access to any personal information relating to you which we hold, except in some exceptional circumstances provided by law (including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)). You are also entitled to edit and correct such information if the information is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading.

If you would like access to or correct any records of personal information we have about you, you are able to access and update that information (subject to the above) by contacting us via the details set out at the top of this document.

Where accessing your personal information is particularly involved, we may charge you a fee for providing that information to you equal to our costs in procuring what you have requested.

Resolving Privacy Complaints

1.27 Complaints generally

We have put in place an effective mechanism and procedure to resolve privacy complaints. We will ensure that all complaints are dealt with in a reasonably appropriate timeframe so that any decision (if any decision is required to be made) is made expeditiously and in a manner that does not compromise the integrity or quality of any such decision.

1.28 Contacting KINNECT regarding complaints

If you have any concerns or complaints about the manner in which we have collected, used or disclosed and stored your personal information, please contact us:

Telephone: (07) 3391 2623

Email: info@KINNECT.com.au

Address: PO Box 8264 Woolloongabba Qld 4102

Please mark your correspondence to the attention of the Privacy Officer.

1.29 Steps we take to resolve a complaint

In order to resolve a complaint, we:

- (a) will liaise with you to identify and define the nature and cause of the complaint;
- (b) may request that you provide the details of the complaint in writing;
- (c) will keep you informed of the likely time within which we will respond to your complaint; and
- (d) will inform you of the legislative basis (if any) of our decision in resolving such complaint.

1.30 Register of complaints

We will keep a record of the complaint and any action taken in a Register of Complaints.

Consent, modifications, and updates

1.31 Interaction of this Policy with contracts

This Privacy Policy is a compliance document prescribed by law rather than a legal contract between two or more persons. However, certain contracts may incorporate all, or part, of this Privacy Policy into the terms of that contract. In such instances, KINNECT may incorporate the terms of this policy such that:

- (a) certain sections or paragraphs in this policy are incorporated into that contract, but in such a way that they do not give rise to contractual obligations onto KINNECT, but do create contractual obligations on the other party to the contract; and
- (b) the consents provided in this policy become contractual terms provided by the other party to the contract.

1.32 Acknowledgement

By using our website, purchasing a product or service from KINNECT, where you have been provided with a copy of our Privacy Policy or had a copy of our Privacy Policy reasonably available to you, you are acknowledging and agreeing:

- (a) to provide the consents given by you in this Privacy Policy; and
- (b) that you have been informed of all of the matters in this Privacy Policy.

1.33 Modifications and updates

We reserve the right to modify our Privacy Policy as our business needs require. We will take reasonable steps to notify you of such changes (whether by direct communication or by posting a notice on our website). If you do not agree to our continued use of your personal information due to the changes in our Privacy Policy, please cease providing us with your personal information and contact us via the details set out at the top of this document.
